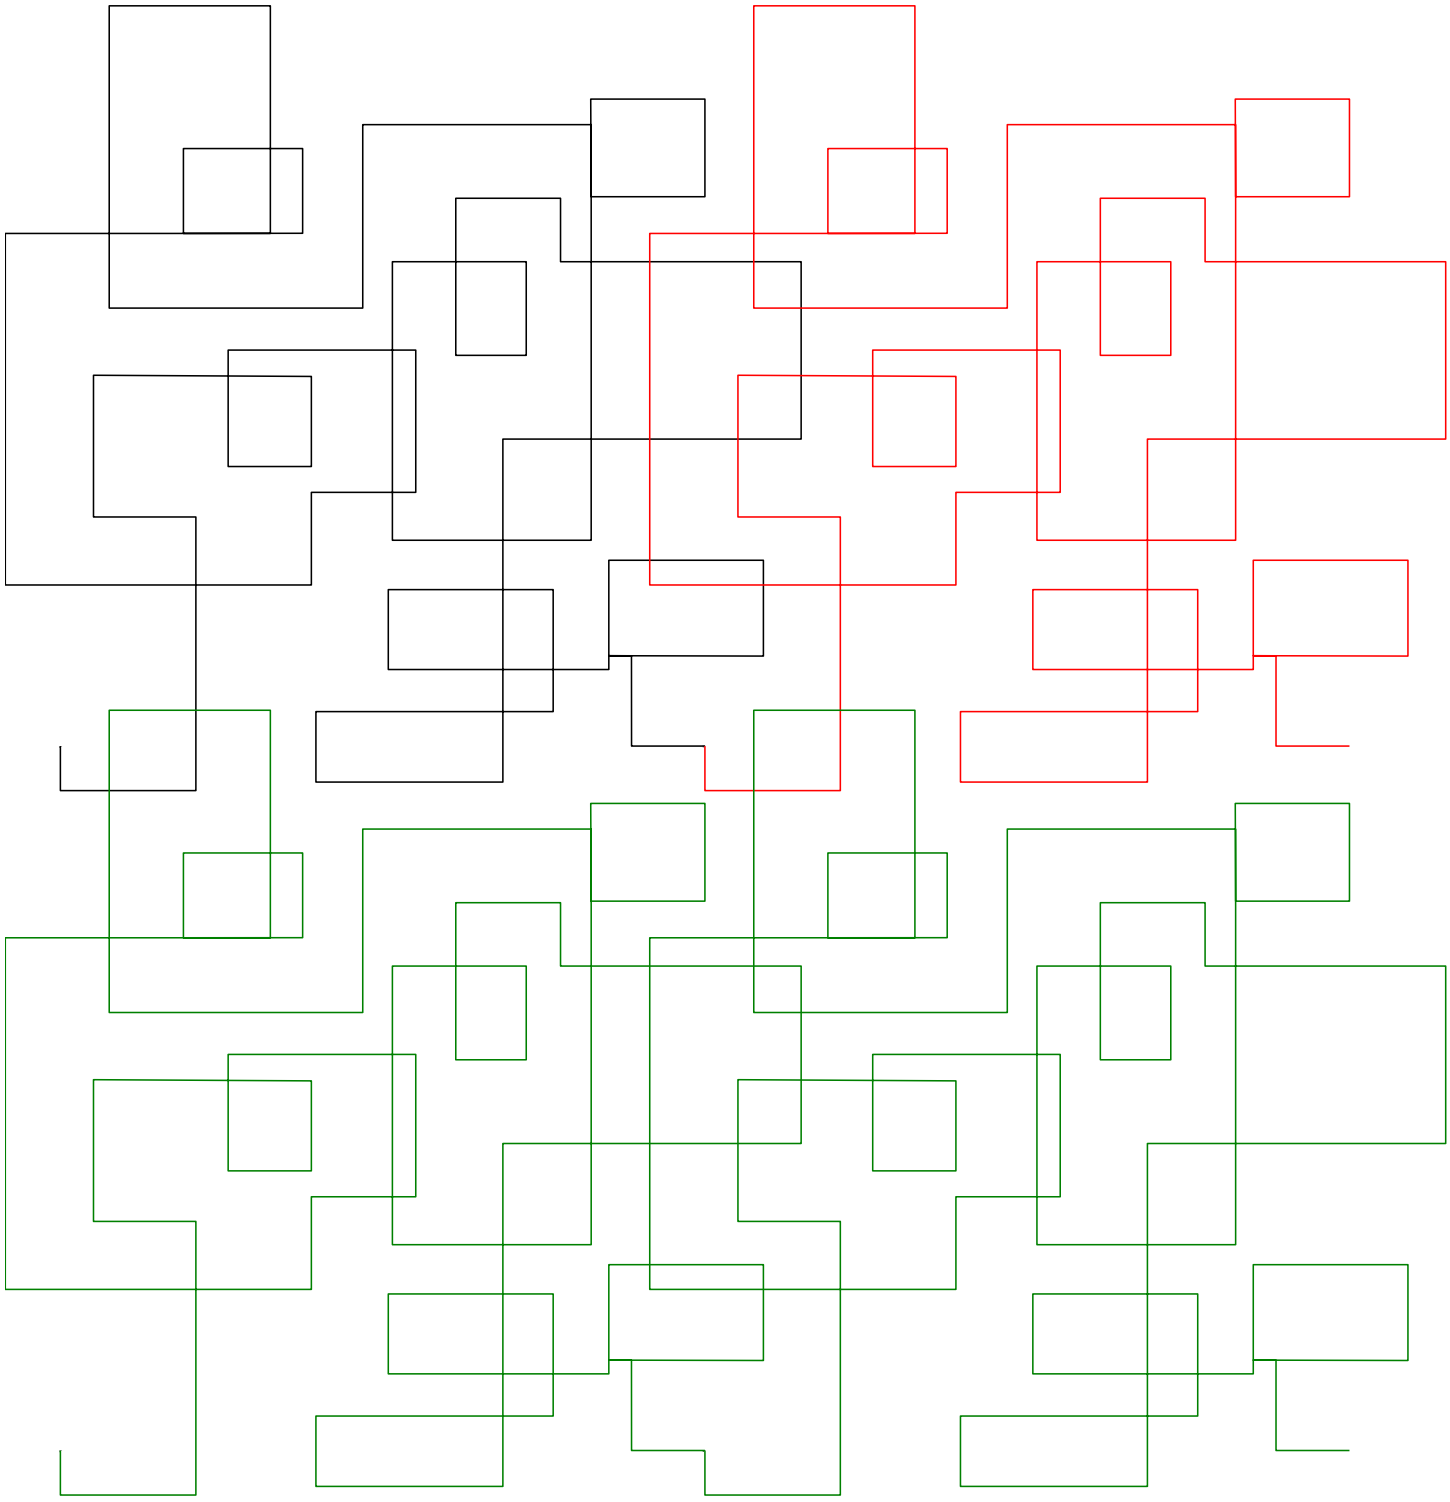
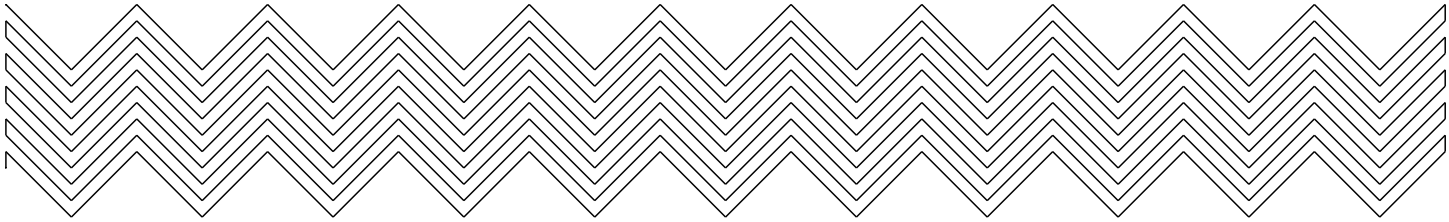
Maze E2E 2014 X 4

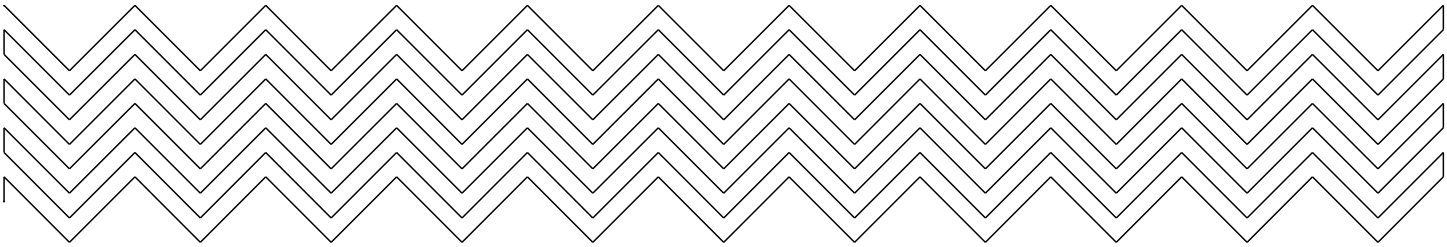
I did this one in color so you could see how far to overlap it when you set up the second row (green)

This one can go in the modern group and quilts out quickly

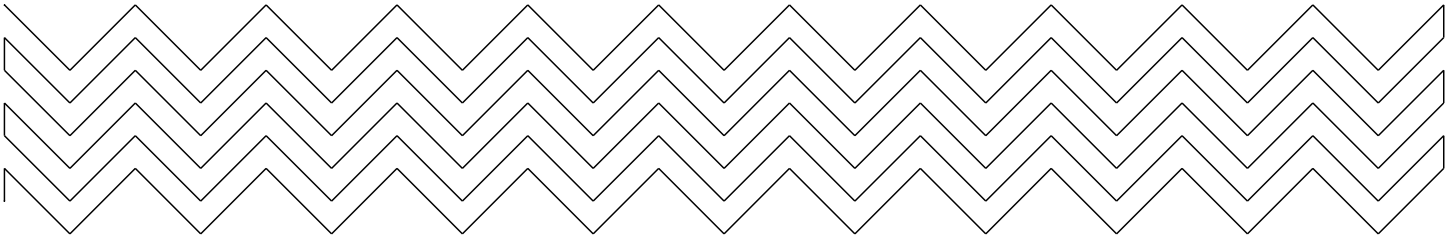




Modern Chevron E2E the rows are 1 inch apart



Modern Chevron 1-5 E2E the rows are 1 1/2 inch apart

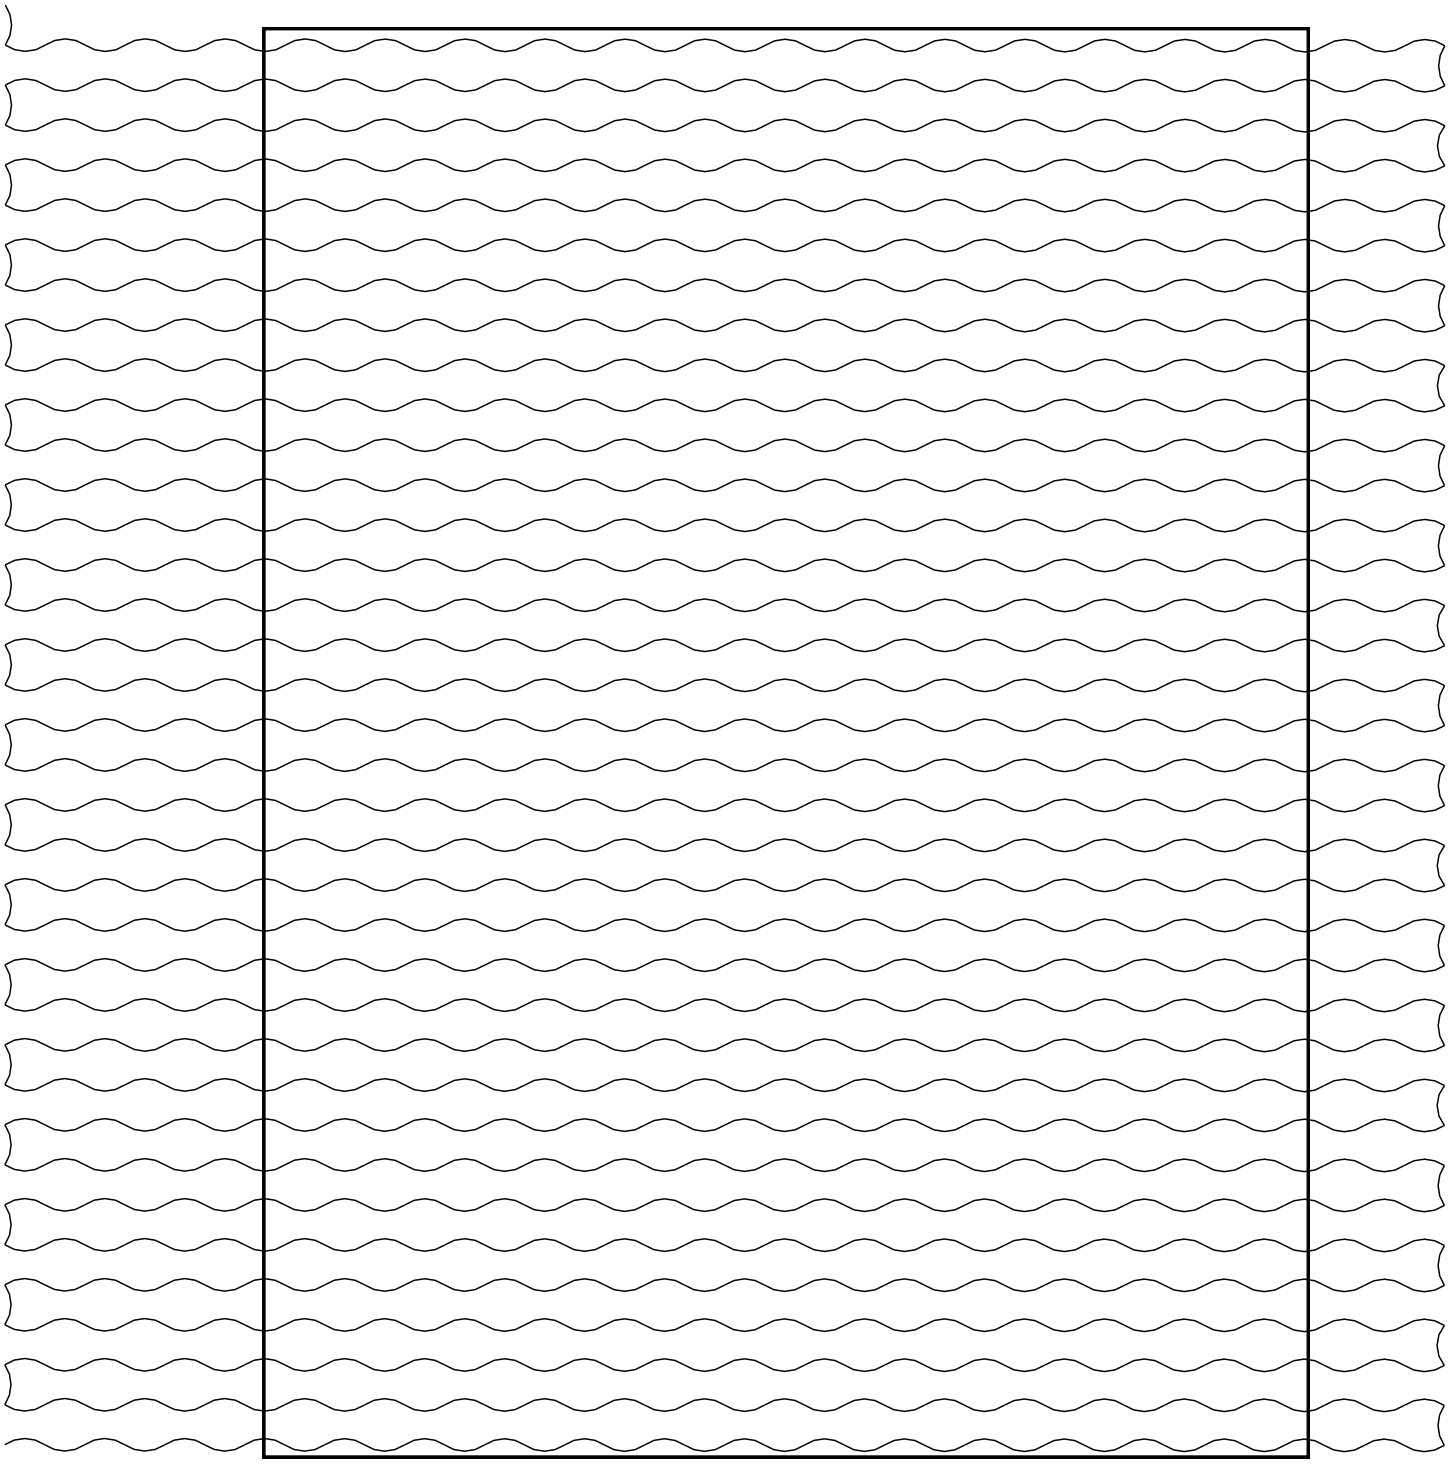


Modern Chevron 2 E2E the rows are 2 inches apart

Modern Chevron Variation E2E the rows are 1 inch then 2 inches apart see layouts

Using the fill inside feature the computer will calculate how wide to make the pattern depending on the selected area. Try setting this up and playing with it a little before you start to quilt.

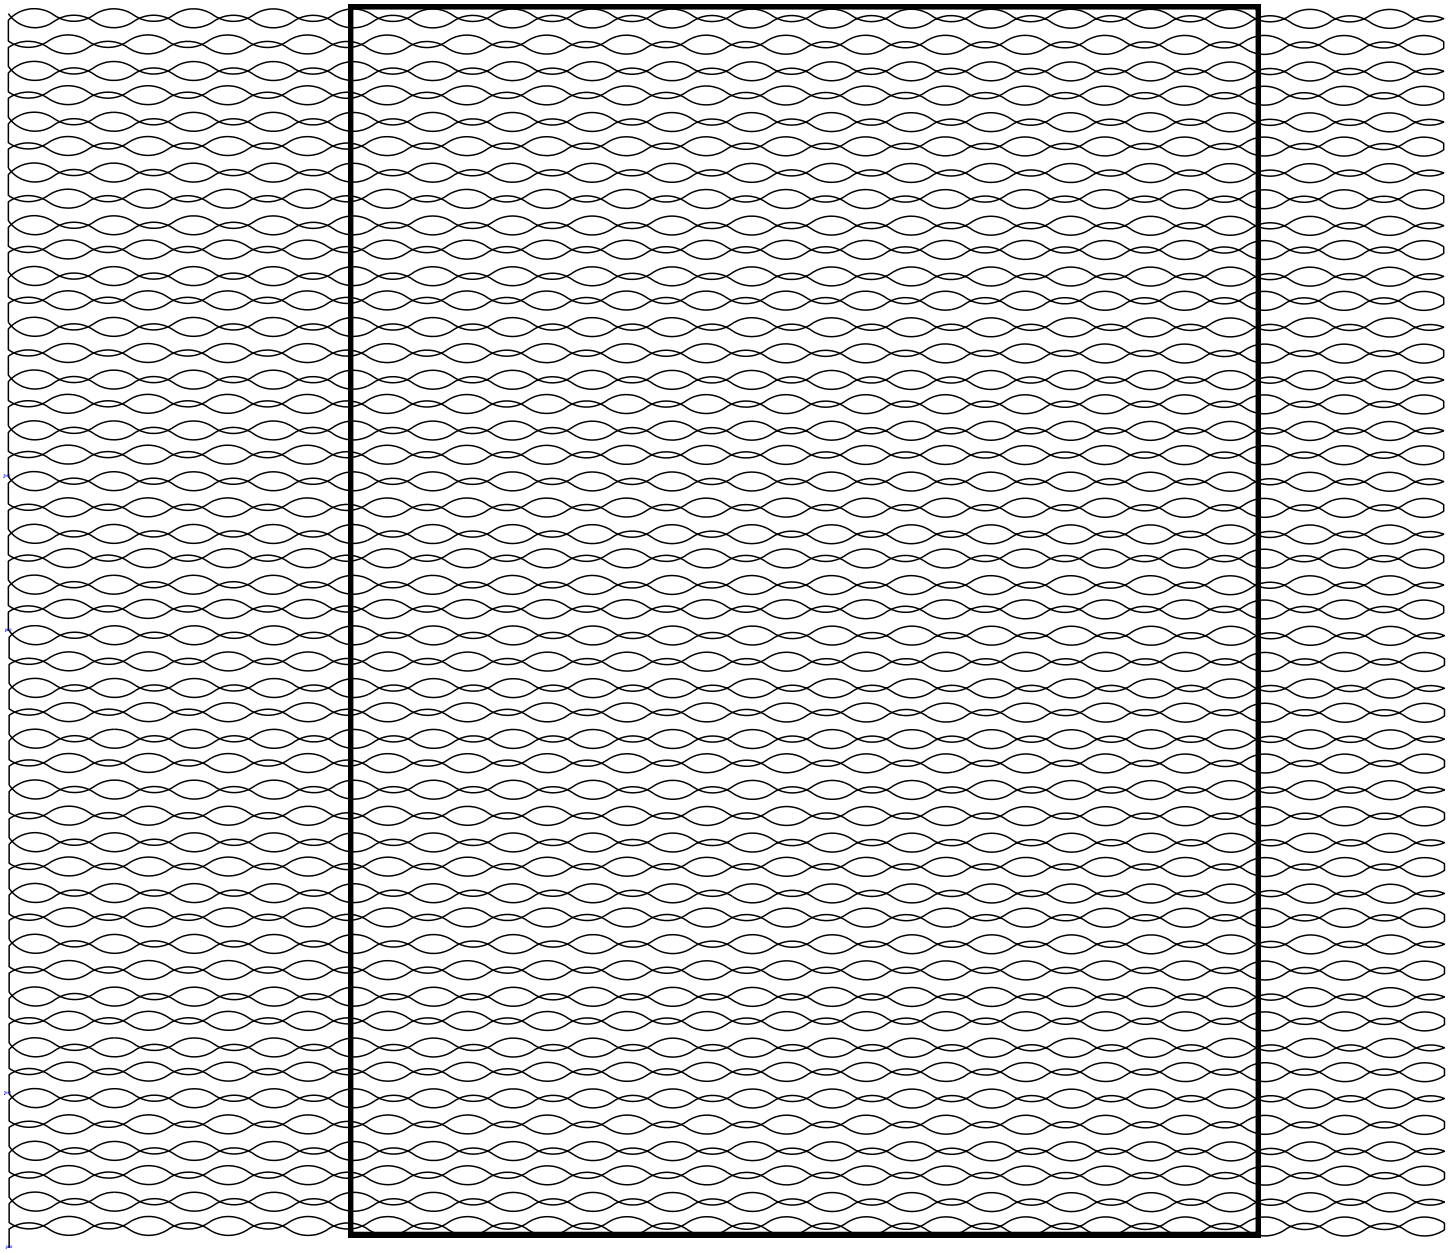
Hour glass modern E2E— Modern quilting is on the run… with this pattern you can quilt all the way across the quilt with no over stitching—this pattern is 90 inches wide. You can use it on any size quilt. Layout the pattern in repeat patterns to cover the length of your quilt. Do not adjust the patterns unless you want it further apart or closer together. Define you quilt area, right click, and use fill inside. It will fill inside the defined area and will be ready to quilt. These instructions are for Statler Users Other machine users consult

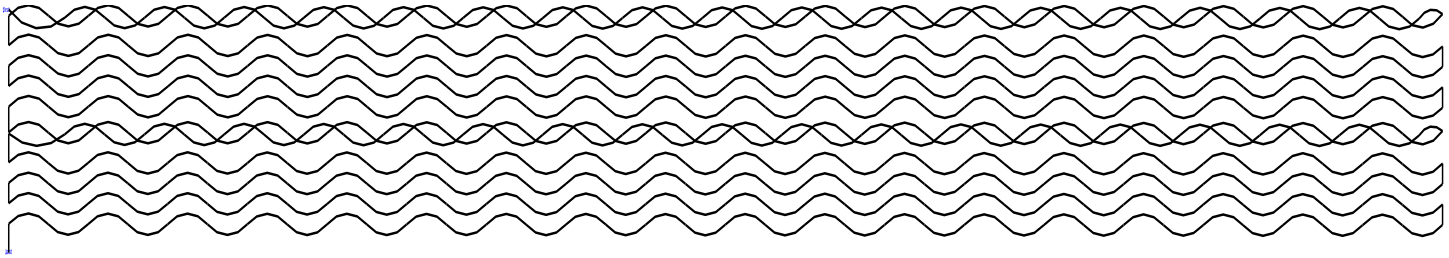


Use Repeat patterns the length of the quilt

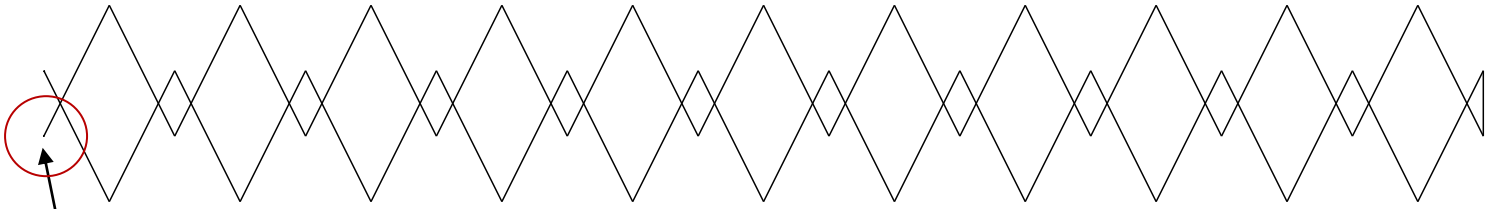
Define the quilt boundries and right click and use fill inside

These instructions are the same for all modern 90 inch patterns





Modern Ripples E2E



Modern Diamonds E2E

The only difference between these E2E's is the little tale used to connect the next one by using a different length connector you can get various looks see the following pages. You can experiment by dividing out this pattern and changing the tale length.
