

How to find patterns that look good on circular or compass quilts

Japanese Fan or compass blocks are made to look good on any circular type block

When doing a compass or circular block quilts look for patterns that go from pt 2 pt diagonal not horizontal or vertical. They will usually give you a nice look on a circle or compass quilt when you put 4 of them together to make a complete circle

See diagrams on this page